

Sir Knight :

THE Committee appointed to arrange for the entertainment of our guests of RICHMOND COMMANDERY, No. 2, of Richmond, Va., have endeavored to prepare a programme which shall prove pleasant to our guests and acceptable to DE MOLAY COMMANDERY.

In order that the occasion may be one of unalloyed pleasure and harmonious action, the Commander asks the assistance of each and every Sir Knight in carrying out the arrangements, and requests that each Sir Knight who intends to participate in the parades and excursions will report promptly at the time and place indicated in the programme, as the Commandery will move exactly at the time advertised on each occasion.

Sir Knights will appear on all occasions in dark clothes, and in full or partial regalia each day, as may be indicated in the programme. It is important that each Sir Knight should at once examine his regalia, to see that it is in perfect order and according to regulation.

Fraternally yours,

JOHN M. CLARK,

EMINENT COMMANDER.

Boston, June 10th, 1875.

GENERAL PROGRAMME

FOR THE

ENTERTAINMENT

OF

Richmond Commandery No. 2,

OF RICHMOND, VA.

June 16th.

THE members of DE MOLAY COMMANDERY will assemble at their Armory at 2 o'clock, P. M. Leaving the Armory, in full regalia, at 3.15, for the Providence Depot, where the Richmond Knights will be received, and the two bodies will proceed by way of Park Square and Boylston Street to Arlington Street, where the escort (consisting of the Templars of Boston and vicinity) will be in line; thence taking up the line of march through Beacon and Berkeley Streets, Columbus Avenue, Dartmouth, Tremont, Winter, Summer, Devonshire and State Streets, and Merchants Row to Faneuil Hall, where the Richmond Knights will be introduced to the Templars of Massachusetts, and welcomed by representatives of the City Government. After partaking of refreshments, the Commanderies will again take up the line of march, passing through Merchants Row, State, Court and Hanover Streets to the American House, when the escort will be dismissed. RICHMOND and DE MOLAY COMMANDERIES will take Supper together, and at 7.30, P. M., attend the reception of the Civic Authorities of Boston, at the Music Hall.

June 17th.

THE members of the Commandery will assemble at the Armory at 7.15 o'clock, A. M., leaving the Armory, in full regalia, at 8, A. M.; passing through Tremont, Court and Hanover Streets to the American House. At 8.30 o'clock, the two Commanderies will visit Charlestown (independently of the city procession) as the guests of CŒUR DE LEON COMMANDERY, returning to the city at 2 o'clock, P. M. At 3 o'clock, P. M., by invitation, the two Commanderies will unite with the LODGE OF SAINT ANDREW in celebrating the Battle of Bunker Hill, and the Centennial Anniversary of the death of our late Brother, General JOSEPH WARREN, formerly Master of St. ANDREW'S LODGE. The programme for the evening of the 17th is not fully determined upon.

June 18th.

ON the morning of the 18th, the Knights of DE MOLAY will assemble at the Armory at 7.30 o'clock, A. M., in full regalia, taking up the line of march at 8 o'clock, precisely, for the American House; from thence escort the RICHMOND KNIGHTS through Hanover, Tremont; School, Washington, Milk and Broad Streets to Rowe's Wharf, where the Steamer JOHN ROMER will be in readiness to convey the Knights and their Ladies down the Harbor, (it is necessary for the ladies to be on board the Steamer by 8.45 o'clock,) including a visit to the City Institutions and other points of interest, arriving at Melville Gardens at 1.30, P. M. Dinner will be served at 2 o'clock; Dancing from 3 to 5 o'clock, P. M., after which the Commanderies will escort the ladies on board the Steamer, arriving at Rowe's Wharf, Boston, at 6 o'clock, P. M. The Commanderies will again form and proceed through Broad, Milk, Washington, Winter, Tremont, Court and Hanover Streets to the American House. In the evening, the Commanderies will visit the Globe Theatre, leaving the American House at 7.15, P. M.

June 19th.

THE Sir Knights will assemble at the American House (wearing fatigue cap) at 9 o'clock. Carriages will be in readiness to convey the two Commanderies through the suburbs, viz: through Cambridge, Arlington, Watertown, Newton and Brighton, calling at the Estates of gentlemen from whom invitations have been received, returning to the city at 3 o'clock, P. M. At 5 o'clock, P. M., the two Commanderies, with other invited guests, will attend a Grand Banquet, to be given at the American House.

June 20th.

SUNDAY, the Commanderies, by invitation of Rev. W. H. H. MURRAY, will attend Divine Service at Boston Music Hall, at 10.30, A. M.
